This trail is along the Basingstoke Canal and the River Wey. From Woking you will follow the canal until the intersection with the River Wey near Byfleet. You then walk beside the river to Carbridge before returning to Woking centre from the south. There are several pubs along the way to stop for refreshments.